

News from our parish

Parish Council

The Parish Council held their regular monthly meeting in April and have been preparing for a busy month of May.

On May 4, our parish representatives will be participating in the Annual Diocesan Assembly at St. Geragos Armenian Apostolic Church in Las Vegas.

May 11 is a big day for our parish, as it is the 7th Annual Armenian Festival at St. Paul. The festivities will begin at 4:30 p.m. and continue until 10:00 p.m. It's going to be a great day that will include delicious Armenian food, a country store, the Hye Bazaar, kids activities, and dancing to the live music of the Mark Ohanesian Band. Food will be available for dine-in, take-out, or drive-thru. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the Festival, and please help spread the word!

At the end of May, ACYO members and their families from throughout the Diocese will be in Fresno participating in the ACYO Sports Weekend. Activities will begin on Friday, May 25, and continue throughout the Memorial Day Weekend. This should be a fun event for all! Best of luck to the St. Paul teams that will be competing in various sports events throughout the weekend.

Men's Forum

April was highlighted by the Men's Forum being hosted by the Ladies Society, who graciously included Men's Forum members and guests to their special Hot Dog Picnic event on Wednesday evening, April 18, at the church minor hall. Bob Der Matoian and Jerry Mootafian made the Men's Forum's contribution to the festivities of providing ice cold beer and soft drinks to compliment a wonderful hot dog buffet. Featured speaker for the evening was former Fresno city councilman Craig Scharton, who is currently the president of the Downtown Fresno Partnership. Mr. Scharton provided an informative power-point presentation, describing the goals and efforts to bring more businesses, residents, dining and entertainment activities to the Downtown and Tower District areas of Fresno.

With no dinner-meeting scheduled in May, the Men's Forum encourages members to focus their energies on supporting the Annual St. Paul Armenian Festival, scheduled for Friday evening, May 11. The next Men's Forum event will be the annual Father-Son dinner outing, which is scheduled for Wednesday evening, June 19. More information will be forthcoming, but we are planning a return to the Santa Fe Basque Restaurant to enjoy their famous family-style dinners.

Ladies Society

The Ladies Society will have their next dinner-meeting on Wednesday, May 9, at 6:30 p.m. in a private banquet room at "The Old Spaghetti Factory." There will be a choice of three entrée items along with salad, bread and dessert. The cost is $20 and you are welcome to bring a guest or two! The evening will include a devotional and program as well. Please make your reservations for dinner by Friday, May 4, to Annette Moushigian at 559-906-2114 or send an e-mail to moushigian@comcast.net.

On Sunday, April 29, the ladies visited the Evangel Home. They took a delicious hot meal and shared words of comfort, devotion and encouragement with the women. The Evangel Home operates on donations and depends on the help of the community. Please remember to support them by bringing toiletries, non-perishable items, canned and dried good, paper products and diapers to the church office. If you have any questions, call Tracy Beberian at 559-285-4117. Thanks to each of you who have contributed with your gifts to this local ministry. Every donation is greatly appreciated!

Thursday, May 10, is prep day for the 7th Annual St. Paul Armenian Church Food Festival which will be held on Friday, May 11. Many delicious food items are currently being prepared and details for the event are in the works. Contact Gaila Peloian at 559-439-3001, if you are interested in making Cheese Boreg on May 3 at 10:00 in the church kitchen.

We need baked good, jams and crocheted/knit items to sell at our Country Store booth. If you are able to donate any of these items, please bring them to the Country Store table by noon on Friday, May 11. For any questions you might have, contact Jackie Manoogian at 559-252-2097. Also, if you are interested in helping at the event, please give Diane Boyajian a call at 559-433-0787. Diane is organizing and scheduling the kitchen crew duties. "All hands-on-deck" are needed and appreciated for both days.
